

Index

a

- A3 SmaRTStore™ 174
- A4 Sample-Store™ 174
- A5 Compact-Store™ 174
- Abbott organization 10, 17
- Absorption-Distribution-Metabolism-Excretion (ADME) 12
- academic-company partnerships 389
- accessories 170, 180–184
  - acoustic technologies 183
  - Adaptive Focused Acoustics™ (AFA) 183
  - bulk reagent addition 183–184
  - common devices 180–184
  - – centrifuge 182
  - – mixing 182–183
  - plate label 181
  - plate seal/unseal 180–181
  - tube sorting 181–182
  - XL20 tube handling instrument 182
  - Xtp-1152 182
  - tube inspection 184
- Access™ laboratory 185
- acoustic auditing 323
- acoustic dispensing 306
- Acoustic Droplet Ejection (ADE) technology 199–206, 306, 323–347
  - assay miniaturization 334–335
  - combinatorial chemistry 331–332
  - expanded auditing capabilities 338–344
    - auditing bi-phasic solutions 342
    - auditing for restoration 340–341
    - auditing for sample quality 342–343
    - auditing for solute information 341–342
    - auditing for volume 339–340
    - frequency-domain analysis 343–344
    - improved meniscus scan 344
    - new software advances 344
  - expanded reporting capabilities 336–337
    - future directions in 323–347
    - high-viscosity fluids 324–326
    - layered, bi-phasic fluids 329
    - low-surface-tension fluids 326–329, See also individual entry
    - stretching the boundaries of current ADE 323–338
      - particle formation 332
      - performance 203–206
      - platform validation 205–206
      - precision 203
      - precision coating 332–333
      - quality assurance
        - non-invasive DMSO hydration monitor 203–205
      - quality assurance 203–206
      - spot-by-spot coating 333
      - touchless transfer of dangerous materials 333–334
      - transfection via sonoporation 336
      - transfer of droplets of different volume 337–338
        - larger droplets 338
        - smaller droplets 337–338
- acoustic technology 183, 199–218, See also Acoustic Droplet Ejection (ADE)
  - acoustic-assisted compound solubilization and mixing 206–209
    - sonication 207
    - ultrasonic mixing 207–209
  - applications in drug discovery 209–216
    - assay-ready plates 209–211
    - cell-based combination screening 215–216
      - compound dosing in cell-based screening applications 211–215
      - compound screening operations 210
      - dose-response studies 210

- acoustic technology (contd.)
    - – HTS 209–211
    - – single-concentration screening 210
    - applications of 199–218
    - emerging applications 216–218
    - – acoustic transfer of aqueous reagents and biologics 216–217
    - – cell suspension transfer 217
    - – MALDI imaging mass spectrometry, matrix deposition for 217–218
  - Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients (APIs) 139
  - Active Sample Manager (ASM) System 173
  - Activity Base™ software 205
  - Adaptive Focused Acoustics (AFA) 183, 201
  - Agilent BioCel System 185
  - Agilent Microplate Labeler 181
  - Agilent PlateLoc Thermal Microplate Sealer 180
  - aliquoting process 4, 228
  - alternative models of drug discovery 389–390
    - academic–company partnerships 389
  - American Society for Microbiology (ASM) 144
  - American Type Culture Collection (ATCC) 143–156, See also global biological resource, managing
    - collaborations 161–162
    - Institutional Review Board (IRB) 160
    - ownership and intellectual property management 160–161
    - Proficiency Testing Program 156
    - regulatory and legal compliance 159–160
  - analytical quality in compound management 27–28
    - chromatographic separation 27
    - concentration measurement 27–28, 39–41
    - identity measurement 27–32, See also individual entry
    - purity measurement 27–28, See also individual entry
    - sensitivity factor in 27
  - aqueous reagents, acoustic transfer of 216–217
  - Archimedes screw 123–124
  - Aromatic Proportion (AP) 14–15
  - assay miniaturization 334–335
    - higher-density formats 334
    - multi-well plates 334
    - 3456-well format 334
  - Assay-Ready Plate (ARP) 170, 209–211
  - AstraZeneca 47–49
  - Atmospheric Pressure Chemical Ionization (APCI) 29, 31
  - audit trails 230
  - auditing capabilities 338–344, See also under Acoustic Droplet Ejection (ADE) technology
  - automated biorepository, configuration of 236–240
    - modularity 236–239
    - – functional modules 238–239
    - – input/output of storage containers 238
    - – robotic object handling 237–238
    - – sample container selection 239
    - – storage chamber 237
    - scalability 239–240
    - – expansion of storage capacity 240
    - – increased storage system performance 240
  - automated biospecimen management 232–236
    - advantages of 232–236
    - efficiency and convenience of operation 234–235
      - – energy savings 235
      - – ergonomics 234–235
      - – space savings 234
      - – time savings 234
    - operational reliability 232–234
    - – availability 232
    - – maintenance 233
    - – redundancy 233
    - – remote diagnostics 233–234
  - restricted physical access to stored content 235–236
  - stable storage conditions 232
- Automated Liquid Sample Bank (ALSB) 383
- automated storage and retrieval 226
  - biorepository sample integrity enhancement with 221–241
- automated weighing 123–125
- automation in sample management 2, 5, 165–197, See also liquid handlers; system building blocks
  - accessories 180–184, See also individual entry
  - Active Sample Manager (ASM) System 173
  - ARange systems 173
  - automated cherry picking 3
  - case study 186–196, See also Board Institute in Cambridge, CM group evolution at
  - compound management 382–384
  - development of 165–197
  - historical background 165–167
  - plate handling, integration 184–185

- plate-to-plate replication 5
- present status 167–169
  - integrated automation system 168
  - workstation model 168
- quality control and reliability 52–54
- Sample Access Manager (SAM) System 173
- self-controlling processes 225–226
- storage systems 171–175, See also individual entry
- vial-to-plate transfer 5

b

- barcoding 52
  - barcode reader 177
  - barcode-based inventory systems 4
- batch size reduction 90–92
- benchmark level biospecimen research 59–60
  - current issues 59–60
  - impediments to 59–60
- biobanking 3–4, 221–224, 351–364
  - in biomedical research 351–354
  - biospecimen quality in biorepositories 223–224
  - emerging growth of 221–224
    - source material for post-genomic age research 221–222
  - future technologies and 356–363
  - IT solutions and challenges 357–359
  - nanotechnology and quality control 360–361
    - new fixatives 362
  - robotized RNA/DNA/protein extraction 363
    - storage mechanization 359
  - Tissue-Microarrays (TMAs) 361–362
  - virtual microscopy 360
  - future technologies impact within 351–364
  - increasing complexity of 354–356
    - biobank diversity 355–356
    - biobanks versus sample collections 354
  - modern biobanks, need for 223
  - operational models in 222–223
    - disease-oriented biobanks for epidemiology 223
    - disease-oriented general biobanks 223
    - population biobanks 222
- biological data management 255–263
- biological specimen collections
  - outsourcing 374–377
  - biorepository 375–376
- biologics, acoustic transfer of 216–217
- biomedical research
  - biobanks role in 351–354
  - personalized medicine on the horizon 353–354
  - scientific commitment 352–353
- Biomolecular Resources Research Infrastructure (BMRI) 224
- BioRAPTR FRD Microfluidic Workstation 183
- biorepository, outsourcing 375–376
  - competencies for vendors 376–377
  - determining the model 375–376
    - direct shipment of samples 375
    - one biorepository versus multiple biorepositories 376
  - routing samples from sites through central laboratory 375
  - internal oversight for vendors 377
- biorepository sample integrity enhancement 221–241, See also automated biorepository, configuration of; automated biospecimen management
  - automated storage and retrieval 225–226
    - automation, self-controlling processes 225–226
    - inventory management 225
- BioResource Economic Impact Factors (BREIF) 63
- BioResource Impact Factor (BRIF) 63
- biospecimen lifecycle concept 64–66
  - acquisition (Time point 3) 65
  - distribution and retrieval (Time point 6) 66
  - framework to aid EBBP protocol design 64–66
  - handling and processing (Time point 4) 65
  - medical and surgical procedures (Time point 2) 65
  - patient (Time point 1) 65
  - re-stocking (Time point 8) 66
  - scientific analysis (Time point 7) 66
  - storage (Time point 5) 65
- Biospecimen Reporting for Improved Specimen Quality (BRISQ) 73
- biospecimen research protocol 60
- biospecimen science 62
- biospecimen tracking 229
- biospecimen value, maintaining 226–231
  - biospecimen integrity 226–228
    - aliquoting 228
    - biospecimen storage under desiccated conditions 228
    - low humidity cold storage conditions, maintenance of 228

- biospecimen value, maintaining (contd.)
 – – stability and homogeneity of storage climate 227
 – – stable storage conditions 226–227
 – data integrity 228–231
 Board Institute in Cambridge, CM group evolution at 186–196 – automated solutions 189–192
 – – accessories 191
 – – integrated vs walk-up 192
 – – liquid handling 190–191
 – – storage format 190
 – – storage systems 190
 – – system integration 191–192
 – background 186
 – current holdings integrity 188–189
 – Institute for Chemistry and Cell Biology (ICCB) 187
 – roadmap to evolution 188
 – starting condition 187–188
 – workflow standardization 193–196
 – – cherry-picks 194–195
 – – compound registration 195–196
 – – screening plates 193–194
 Bravo Automated Liquid Handling Platform 180
 bulk reagent addition 183–184
- C
- C2000, HTS type 26
 camera-based technology 54
 cavitation 207
 cell-based combination screening 215–216
 cell-based screening applications, compound dosing in 211–215
 Cell Repository Lines (CRL) 145
 cell suspension transfer 217 cells and cell derivatives 143–162, See also global biological resource, managing cellular morphology 151
 Central Nervous System (CNS) 285–291
 centralized layouts, and lean layouts 95
 Certified Cell Lines (CCL) 145
 changeover time reduction 90–92
 Charged Aerosol Detector (CAD) 36, 49
 ‘cherry picking’ from virtual space 286–287
 ‘chemical alerts’ filters 284
 chemical library management 278–279
 chemical registrar, role of 253
 chemical registration system 271–272
 Chemiluminescent Nitrogen Detection (CLND) 34–37, 40, 50–51 cheminformatic clustering approaches 9
- chemogenomics 285–291
 Chemokine (C–C motif) Receptor 5 (CCR5) 283
 chromatographic separation 27
 cold supply chain challenges 136–137
 combinatorial chemistry 277, 331–332
 compound collection 10–20
 – design criteria for 10–20
 – – lipophilicity design considerations 11–14
 – enriching with drug-like compounds 10–20
 – – assessing risk, from Rule of 5 to Rule of 3/75 18–19
 – – in silico design 19–20
 – – physicochemical roadblocks 14–18
 – – physicochemical tailoring of 10–11
 compound dosing in cell-based screening applications 211–215 compound-handling challenges in drug discovery 201–203 compound hierarchy, different levels of 244 compound integrity 384–385
 compound inventory, cost of ownership 369–371
 Compound Management (CM) 3–4, 45–55, 265–272, 371
 – automation of 382–384
 – and biobanking, comparison 3
 – commercially available, benefits of 272 – features of 265–272
 – IT systems
 – – need for 265
 – outsourcing areas in 371
 compound management laboratories, thinking lean in 83–105, See also lean thinking compound management software 266–272
 – fulfillment 270–271
 – – despatch 271
 – – offline instrument integration 270
 – – offline vs online 271
 – – online instrument integration 270
 – – reports and metrics 271
 – interfaces with external systems 271–272
 – – chemical registration system 271–272
 – – external ordering system 272
 – – results analysis 272
 – inventory management 266–268
 – – data storage 267
 – – editing inventory items 267
 – – importing inventory items 267
 – – inventory browsing 267
 – – inventory tracking 267
 – – organizing the inventory 267–268

- ordering 268–269
  - – definition of order 268
  - – order approval 269
  - – order status notifications 269
  - – order validation 268
  - – restrictions 269
  - – sample naming 268
  - – web-based ordering 268
- workflow management 269–270
- – workflow steps 269–270
- compound processing, streamlining 101–103
- compound quality, assessing 23–41
  - analytical quality (sample QC) in 27–28
  - liquid handling equipment 26
  - process quality (QA) in 25–27
- compound registration 243
- comPOUND system 175
- Compressed O-Ring Expansion (CO-RE) technology 178
- concentration/solubility measurement 39–41
- Consensus Standards Partnership (CSP) 156
- contact dispensing liquid handling systems 53
- continuous improvement 89–90
  - combining standard work with 90
- Contract Research Organizations (CROs) 127, 387
- Corporate Biological Screening Database (CBSD) 255–257
- corporate collection 116
- corporate files
  - for the future, re-designing 291–299
  - – future file 296–299
  - – ‘one compound, one well’ approach 292, 294
  - – pooling compounds moving forward 291–295
  - HT chemistry impact on 277–278
- Cox 1 gene 152
- ‘cradle-to-grave’ approach 64
- cryopreservation 153–154
- cryotubes for storage 359
- culture collections 144–148
- current screening collections 9–10
  - defining 9–10
  - hit-to-lead efforts 10
  - scaffold-based approach 10
  - ‘similarity property principle’ 9
- customer ordering systems 5
  - ‘pull’ systems 5

- ‘push’ systems 5

cycle time 118

d

Dangerous Goods and Safety (DGS) 138 dangerous goods in excepted quantities 134

data entry tools 257–258

data integrity 228–231

- audit trails 230
- biospecimen tracking 229
- LIMS connectivity 230

data management 2, 154–155, 171

data storage 267

data systems supporting sample management 5

database designs 261–263

database querying 258–261

Deep Knowledge Target and Pathways (DKTP) work 296 definition of an order 268

despatch 271

diagnostics industry, PDPs for 322

Diode-Array Detector (DAD) 33

direct-dilution method 211–213

disease-oriented biobanks for epidemiology 223

disease-oriented general biobanks 223

distribution 108

diverse subsets 287–288

diversity 285–291

domestic regulations, in small molecules transportation 131

drop-on-demand technologies 321

- printer for dry powder dispensing 307–312

drug discovery 1–6, 23–24

- acoustic applications in 209–216, See also under acoustic technology
- alternative models of 389–390
- compound-handling challenges in 201–203
- compound screening operations 210
- cost of 388
- lean thinking in 86–87

drug-likeness concept 279–283

Drug Metabolism and Pharmacokinetics (DMPK) 17, 86

dry powder dispensing

- drop-on-demand printer for 307–312
- – device setup 308–309
- – powder dispensing parameters 309–312, See also under micro-feeding

DynamicFill™ Technology 179

e

- Echo™ reformatter 205
- EDC ATS-100™ liquid-handling device 200–201
- editing inventory items 267
- Electrospray Ionization (ESI) 29–31
- Elemental Analysis (EA) 29
- enantiomers 250
- Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) system 155
- Enzyme-Labeled Fluorescence (ELF) 148
- ergonomics 234–235
- European Collection of Cell Cultures (ECACC) 143
- Evaporative Light-Scattering Detector (ELSD) 33–36
- Evidence-Based Biobanking Practice (EBBP) 59–79
  - conceptual foundations of 62–63
  - implementation of, crucial considerations related to 77–78
  - integrating EBBP into sample protocols 66–74
    - – protocol planning for 66–67
    - path toward integration of 62–66
    - post-acquisition analytic variable relationship to 63
  - pre-acquisition analytic variable relationship to 63
  - proposed staging system to qualify EBBP related data 74–77
  - real-time implementation of, strategies to optimize 78–79
  - scientific and technical considerations 68–73
    - – definition of critical issues (Step 1) 68
    - – integrating experiential and evidence-based guidance (Step 3) 71
    - – mid- and post-study (Step 5) 71
    - – to promote 59–79
    - – reviewing relevant scientific literature (Step 2) 68–71
    - – utilizing scientific knowledge (Step 4) 71
  - utilizing publication reporting guidelines to guide 73–74
- expanded reporting capabilities 336–337
- Export Administration Regulations (EAR) 129, 140
- Extended Connectivity Fingerprints with a diameter of 6 (ECFP-6) 291
- external ordering system 272
- Extracorporeal Shockwave Lithotripsy 208

f

- File Enrichment (FE) libraries, outsourced custom-synthesized 283
- ‘fit-for-purpose’ planning 62, 66
- fixatives 362
- Fluorescence In Situ Hybridization (FISH) 361
- Formalin-Fixed Paraffin-Embedded (FFPE) block 71
- fragment libraries 288
- Freedom EVO® series of liquid handlers 179
- FuGENE® 6 reagent 161
- future of sample management 387–390
- future state mapping 89–90

g

- G Protein Coupled Receptors (GPCRs) 10, 285–291
- Gemba 88
- generic compound management process 25
- GlaxoSmithKline (GSK) analysis 14–15
- global biological resource, managing 143–162
  - authentication and characterization 149–153
    - – cellular morphology 151
    - – Cox 1 and CO1 152
    - – isoenzyme analysis 152
    - – karyotyping 152
    - – microbial contamination 151
    - – mycoplasma detection 151
    - – Short Tandem Repeat (STR) profiling 152
    - – viability 151
  - virus testing 151–152
  - cryopreservation, storage, and production 153–154
  - data management 154–155
  - diversity of collections 144–148
  - immunochemistry 153
  - immunophenotyping 153
  - offsite biorepository management 158–159
  - order fulfillment and distribution 157
  - Pico Green® reagent 153
  - Propidium Iodide (PI) 153
  - quality and standards 155–157
  - regulatory and legal compliance 159–160
  - sourcing and acquisition 148–149
- Global Diversity Representative Subset (GDRS) 288–290
  - Confidence in Mechanism (CIM) 290

- Confidence in Rationale (CIR) 290
- creation of 288–290
- druggability 290
- ‘Golden Triangle’ visualization tool 12
- Good Publication Practice (GPP) 73
- goods and services
  - classification and strategy 109–111
  - – core/custom (Quadrant 2) 110
  - – core/standard (Quadrant 4) 111
  - – information 109
  - – inventory 109
  - – non-core/custom (Quadrant 1) 109
  - – non-core/standard (Quadrant 3) 110

h

- head format 176
- head volume range 176
- Hendrix LUT™ technology 207
- HENDRIX SM100 183
- Hepatitis C Virus (HCV) replicon screening 281
- higher-density formats 334
- High-Performance Liquid Chromatography (HPLC) 29, 33, 40
- high-quality compound collection, generating 9–20
- high-quality data management 54–55
- high-quality tissue samples 59–79, See also Evidence-Based Biobanking Practice (EBBP)
  - obtaining and maintaining 59–79
- High-Throughput Screening (HTS) 2, 45, 86, 209–211, 255, 265, 275–301
  - C2000 26
  - chemical library management 278–279
  - compounds collection for, history of 276–277
  - drug-likeness concept 279–283
    - – drug-like 280–281
    - – lead-like 282–283
  - future 275–301
  - hit identification, future routes for 299–301
    - – Biologics 300
    - – screening technologies 300
  - HT chemistry impact on corporate files 277–278
  - Lipinski Rules 279–283
  - Piezo Dispense Pens (PDPs) in 317–319
    - – advantages 319
    - – quality versus quantity 283–285
    - – ‘chemical alerts’ filters 284
  - SonicMan 26
  - subsets, emergence of 285–291

- – ‘cherry picking’ from virtual space 286–287
- – Central Nervous System (CNS) 285–291
- – chemogenomics 285–291
- – diverse subsets 287–288
- – diversity 285–291
- – fragment 285–291
- – Global Diversity Representative Subset (GDRS) 288–290
- – G-Protein-Coupled Receptor (GPCR) 285–291
- – ion channel 285–291
- – kinase 285–291
- – Library of Pharmacologically Active Compounds (LOPAC) 285–291
- – protein–protein interaction 285–291
- ultra High Throughput Screening (uHTS) 3
- high-viscosity fluids 324–326
- history of sample management 381–391
- hit-to-drug improvement 282
- hit-to-lead efforts 10–11
- human Ether-a-go-go-Related Gene (hERG) potassium channels 12
- Human Tumor Bank (HTB) 145
- Hybridoma Bank (HB) 145

i

- identity measurement 27–32
  - APCI 29, 31
  - Elemental Analysis (EA) 29
  - ESI 29–31
  - HPLC 29
  - LC–MS 28
  - MS 29
  - NMR 28
  - quadrupole analyzer 31
  - Selective Ion Monitoring (SIM) 32
  - Time of Flight (TOF) 32
  - UPLC 29
- immunochemistry 153
- Immunohistochemical (IHC) studies 361
- immunophenotyping 153
- immunosensors 360
- importing inventory items 267
- in silico* design 19–20
- independent service providers 388–389
- Influenza Reagent Repository (IRR) 158
- informatics, sample management 113–114
- information technology 243–263
  - biological data management 255–263
  - – Corporate Biological Screening Database (CBSDB) 255–257
  - – data entry tools 257–258

- information technology (contd.)
    - database designs 261–263
    - database querying 258–261
    - dimension tables 262
    - facts table 262
    - hyperlinking-based activities 259
    - special data types 261
    - observations on 254–255
    - for sample management 243–263
  - instrument QC 119
  - integrated storage and dispensing devices 312–323
  - integration options 177
  - Intellectual Property (IP) 253–254
  - interfaces with external systems 271–272
  - International Agency for Research on Cancer (IARC) 61
  - International Air Transport Association (IATA) 129
  - International Classification of Disease (ICD) 358
  - International Depository Authorities (IDAs) 159
  - international regulations, small molecules transportation 134–136
  - International Society for Biological and Environmental Repositories (ISBER) 61, 224, 358
  - International Standards Organization (ISO) 155
  - inventory 84
  - inventory audits 119
  - inventory browsing 267
  - inventory factor in sample management 3
  - inventory management 225, 266–268
  - inventory positioning and synchronization 116
    - corporate collection 116
    - external alliance 117
    - program set 117
    - screening collection 116
    - selectivity set 117
  - inventory tracking 267
  - ionization techniques 30–31
  - isoenzyme analysis 152
- k
- kanban, lean technique 92–94
    - two-bin kanban 93–94
  - karyotyping 152
- l
- Labcyte Echo™ liquid-handling device 200–201
  - Laboratory Information Management System (LIMS) 229–231
  - laboratory notebooks 253–254
  - Lateral Ultrasonic Thrust (LUT) 201
  - layered, bi-phasic fluids 329–331
  - lead optimization cycle 87
  - lean laboratory toolbox 87–101
    - batch size reduction 90–92
    - changeover time reduction 90–92
    - continuous improvement 89–90
    - defining value 87–88
    - engaging staff 100–101
    - future state mapping 89–90
    - high equipment reliability 97
      - monitor all equipments 97–98
      - monitor and display equipment reliability 98
    - refine maintenance based on equipment failure database 98
    - routine maintenance 97
    - kanban 92–94
    - lean layouts and flow 95–96
    - cell-based approach 95
    - 5S 92–94
    - set-up process 91
    - standardized work 89–90
    - Theory of Constraints (TOC) 99–100
    - total productive maintenance 96–98
      - cross-training matrix 97
      - understanding the current process 88
    - visual workplace 100
    - workload smoothing 90–92
  - lean thinking 83–105
    - application of 83–86
    - in drug discovery 86–87
    - emergence of 83
    - streamlining compound processing 101–103
    - in waste reduction 85
  - Library of Pharmacologically Active Compounds (LOPAC) 285–291
  - Ligand Efficiency (LigE) 14
  - Ligand Lipid Efficiency (LLE) 14
  - Lipidic Cubic Phases (LCPs) 328
  - Lipinski Rules 279–283
  - lipophilicity design criteria, for compound collection enrichment 11–14
  - Liquid Chromatography/Mass Spectrometry (LC/MS) analysis 4, 28, 49
  - liquid handlers 175–180
    - barcode reader 177
    - Bravo Automated Liquid Handling Platform 180
    - deck size 176

- features 175–178
- Freedom EVO® series of liquid handlers 179
- gripper 177
- head format 176
- head volume range 176
- individual channels 176
- integration options 177
- NIMBUS instrument control software 178
- STAR Line 178
- tip loading 177
- tube/vial gripping 177
- VENUS instrument control software 178
- liquid handling 169–170
- liquid handling QA program 26
- low-surface-tension fluids 326–329
  - protein crystallography 326–329
- low-temperature storage problem 5
- Low-Throughput Screens (LTS) systems 256

m

- MALDI imaging mass spectrometry, matrix deposition for 217–218
- manual weighing 122–123
- many-to-many dispensing 124
- Mass Spectrometry (MS) 28–29
- Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS) 139
- mechanization of storage 359
  - classical cryotubes 359
  - robotized storage 359
- Medical Research Council-Technology (MRC-T) group 390
- metadata 256
- microbial contamination 151
- Microbiology and Infectious Diseases Biological Resource Repository (MID-BRR) 158
- Micro-Electrical Mechanical System (MEMS)-based transducers 183, 208
- micro-feeding 309–312
  - powder dispensing parameters effect on 309–312
    - arching 309
    - blocking 309
    - flow properties 309
    - nozzle diameter 310
    - plugging 309
    - water depth in transmission tank 310
- microsonic Systems 183
- MicroStar system 185
- microstreaming 336

- minimal biospecimen collection and data set 60
- MiniStore storage systems 174–175
- modularity 236–239
  - robotic object handling 237–238
  - storage chamber 237
- monolithic silos of excellence, avoiding 114–115
- Mosaic™ software 205
- MultiFlo™ Microplate Dispenser 184
- multi-well plates 334
- mycoplasma detection 151

n

- NanoCell system 185
- Nanodrop Express system 183
- nanotechnology and quality control 360–361
- National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (NIAID) collection 158
- National Institutes of Health/National Cancer Institute's Office of Biorepositories and Biospecimen Research (NIH/NCI OBBR) 61
- new enabling technology 305–347
  - Acoustic Droplet Ejection (ADE) technology 323–347, See also individual entry
  - drop-on-demand printer for dry powder dispensing 307–312, See also dry powder dispensing
  - liquid transfer automation 307
  - Piezo Dispense Pens (PDPs) 312–323, See also individual entry
- new technologies affecting daily activities of biobanks 356–363
- NIMBUS instrument control software 178
- non-invasive DMSO hydration monitor 203–205
- Nuclear Magnetic Resonance (NMR) 35
- Nucleofactor® 161
- Number of Aromatic Rings (NAR) 14
  - and Fsp<sup>3</sup>, inverse proportionality between 15–17

o

- offline instrument integration 270
- offline vs online 271
- offsite biorepository management 158–159
- on-deck accessories 177–178
- 'One Size Fits All' approach 107–108
- online instrument integration 270
- operational reliability 232–234
- order/ordering 268–269, See also under compound management software
  - approval 269

- order/ordering (contd.)
  - status notifications 269
  - validation 268
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) 61
- organization, sample management 111–113
- organizing the inventory 267–268
- outsourcing sample management 367–378, See also biorepository, outsourcing
  - biological specimen collections 374–377
  - to exploit a key asset 371–373
  - future developments 373–374
  - inventory, requirements 372
    - – back-up or disaster recovery plan 372
    - – physical security of samples 372
    - – robust and reliable IT infrastructure 372
  - outsourcing areas in compound management 371
  - in pharmaceutical industry 367–374
    - – compound inventory, cost of ownership 369–371
    - – economic advantage 368
    - – organizational advantage 368
    - – sourcing the right partner 368–369
- p
- particle formation 332
- personalized medicine, biobanks in 353–354
- pharmaceutical industry, outsourcing SM in 367–374, See also under outsourcing sample management
- pharmaceutical laboratory, instrument to operate PDPs in 319–321
- pharmacophore information 10
- physicochemical tailoring of compound collection 10–11
- Pico Green® reagent 153
- Piezo Dispense Pens (PDPs) 312–323
  - advantages 313–317
    - – easy handling of solvents 314
    - – online volume determination 315
    - – precision of dispensing volumes 316
    - – storage volume 314
  - in HTS environment 317–319
  - integrated storage and dispensing devices 312–323
    - mode of operation 313–317
    - in pharmaceutical laboratory 319–321
  - for sterile and contamination-free production of in vitro diagnostics 321–322
    - – drop-on-demand technologies 321
- Plate-Based Diversity Set (PBDS) 290–291, 297
- plate handling, integration 170, 184–185
  - Access™ laboratory 185
  - Agilent BioCel System 185
  - MicroStar system 185
  - NanoCell system 185
  - POD™ automation platform 185
- plate seal/unseal 180–181
- plate-to-plate replication 5
- POD™ automation platform 185
- pooling compounds 291–295
- population biobanks 222
- position inventory 115–117
- post-acquisition analytic variable 63
- post-genomic age research, source material for 221–222
- powder dispensing parameters 309–312, See also under micro-feeding
- pre-acquisition analytic variable 63
- precision coating 332–333
- PResentation and Interpretation of Medical Research (PRIMR) 73
- preserving biospecimen quality, research protocol in 60
- Pressure-Monitored Pipetting (PMP™) 179
- Primary Cell Solutions (PCS) 145
- process mapping 88
  - brown paper process mapping 88
  - Gemba 88
- Process Quality (QA) 25–27
- process quality in compound management 25–27
- production 108
- Program Evaluation and Review Technique (PERT) 119
- Propidium Iodide (PI) 153
- protein crystallography 326–329
- Protein–Protein Interactions (PPIs) 14, 285–291
- ‘pull’ systems 5
- purity measurement 27–28, 32–37
  - CAD 36
    - chromatographic separation 33–34
  - CLND 34–35
  - detectors used in 35
    - – DAD 33
    - – ELSD 33, 36
    - – NMR 35
    - – single wavelength UV 35
  - HPLC 33
    - low purity, intercepting 49–51
    - most appropriate purity cut-off for solutions, determining 37–38
  - SFC 33

- UPLC 33
- UV detectors 34
- ‘push’ systems 5

q

- quadrupole analyzer 31
- quality
  - balanced approach to 47
  - from CM perspective 46–47
  - Quality and Quantity Control (QQC) 385
  - Quality Assurance (QA) procedures 24
  - Quality Management System (QMS) 155
  - and standards 155–157
  - versus quantity 283–285
- Quality Control (QC) 3, 25, 84
- quality within Compound Management (CM), delivering and maintaining 45–55
  - automation quality control and reliability 52–54
  - camera-based technology 54
  - high-quality data management 54–55
  - intercepting low purity 49–51
  - samples in solution, storage and delivery of 47–49
  - solids, storage and delivery of 51–52

r

- racemic mixtures 250
- Rayleigh limit 30
- Recursive Partitioning (RP) model 15
- reduction of redundancy 386–387
- Relative Standard Deviation (RSD) 312
- Repetitive Strain Injury (RSI) 123
- Reporting recommendations for tumor MARKer (REMARK) prognostic studies 73
- reports and metrics 271
- Robotic Manipulator arm (RoMa) 179
- robotized RNA/DNA/protein extraction 363
- robotized storage 359
- Roswell Park Memorial Institute medium (RPMI)-1640 147
- Rule of 3/75 18–19

s

- 5S, lean technique 92–94
  - creating organized workplace, steps to 92
  - – sort 92
  - – standardize 92
  - – straighten, set in order, or simplify 92
  - – sustain 92
  - – sweep or shine 92
- Sample Access Manager (SAM) System 173
- Sample Management (SM) 1–6

- automation in 165–197, See also automation in sample management
- barcodes 4
- common pitfalls of 107–108
- – ‘One Size Fits All’ approach 108
- data systems supporting 5
- future of 387–390
- history of 381–391
- implementing 111
- independent service providers 388–389
- informatics 113–114
- location and history of samples, tracking 4
- organization 111–113
  - – distributor 112
  - – leader’s role 112
  - – as a single organization 112
- procedures and protocols, best practice integration into 61
- role of 381–382
- and supply chain concepts 108–111
- storage labware formats 2
- techniques used 3
  - – biobanking 3–4
  - – compound management 3
  - – inventory 3
- sample naming 268
- sample registration 243–253
  - business rules for compound registration 247–253
    - – chemical registrar, role of 253
    - – combinatorial mixtures 252
    - – compound number prefix 248
    - – country codes 251
    - – development compounds, outside publications, generic, and trade names 252–253
    - – enantiomers and racemic mixtures 250
    - – inorganic compounds 252
    - – larger molecules, of known structure 251–252
    - – larger molecules, of unknown structure 252
    - – number format 248
    - – project codes 251
    - – purity 248–249
    - – radioactivity 250–251
    - – salts 249
    - – site codes 251
    - – standardization of charge form 250
    - – stereochemistry 249–250
    - – tautomerism 250
  - history to 247
  - identifiers, assigning and using 245–246
  - intellectual property 253–254

- sample registration (contd.)
  - laboratory notebooks 253–254
  - methods for naming compounds 246–247
  - need for 243–245
  - preparation numbering 246
  - sample numbering 246
- samples in solution, storage and delivery of 47–49
- scalability 239–240
- 'scheduling' 85
- sciSWIFTER 319–321
- screening collections 9–10, 116, See also
  - current screening collections
- screening compounds 131
- Selective Ion Monitoring (SIM) 32
- Shipper's Export Declaration (SED) 129
- Short Tandem Repeat (STR) profiling 152
- 'similarity property principle' 9
- Single Minute Exchange of Die (SMED) 91
- single wavelength UV 35
- small molecules transportation, challenges of 127–142
  - cold supply chain challenges 136–137
  - collaboration with subject experts 137–140
  - hazardous materials shipping 131
    - domestic regulations 131
    - general shipping procedures and associated regulations 132–134
  - international regulations 134–136
  - legal issues 130
  - logistics, complexity of 129–131
  - organizational/cultural issues 130
  - process development and standardization 138–140
    - communication 140
    - control substances 140
    - Export Administration Regulations (EAR) 140
    - material identification 138
    - record retention 140
    - valuation 139
  - software solutions 140–141
  - supply chain, compliance challenges of 129–131
    - US regulations agencies 131
      - Centers of Disease Controls and Prevention (CDC) 131
      - Custom and Boarder Protection (CBP) 131
      - Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) 131
      - Food and Drug Administration (FDA) 131
      - US Department of Agriculture (USDA) 131
      - US Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) 131
- small quantity regulations 131
- Society of American Bacteriologists (SAB) 144
- software solutions 140–141
- solid sample weighing and distribution 121–142, See also transportation
  - automated weighing 123–125
  - manual weighing 122–123
  - many-to-many dispensing 124
  - practicalities of 121–127
  - technology of 121–127
  - transportation of small molecules, challenges of 127–142
    - Volatile Solvent Transfer (VST) 125–126
- solids, storage and delivery of 51–52
- Solubility Forecast Index (SFI) 15
- sonication 201, 207
- SonicMan™ technology 26, 207
- sonoporation 336
- Spotfire™ visualization tool 19
- stability of solutions 38–39
- stable storage conditions 232
- staff involvement 100–101
  - build on success 101
  - experience 101
  - knowledge sharing 101
  - training 101
- staged approach to qualify EBBP related data 74–77
  - advanced EBBP (Stage II) 75
  - early EBBP (Stage I) 75
  - mature EBBP (Stage III) 75
- Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) 52, 73
- Standard PRE-analytical Code (SPREC) 63
- Standards Development Organization (SDO) 156
- STAndards for the Reporting of Diagnostic (STARD) accuracy 73
- STAR Line 178
- Statistical Process Control (SPC) 52
- Stem Cell Resource Center (SCRC) 145
- Storage labware formats 2
- storage systems 169, 171–175
  - features 171–173
    - environment 172
    - format 172
    - internal manipulation 172
    - robotic interface 172–173
    - size 171–172

- – temperature 172
  - STrengthening the Reporting of OBservational studies in Epidemiology (STROBE) 73
  - Structure–Activity Relationship (SAR) 101, 277
  - subsets
    - diverse subsets 287–288
    - emergence of 285–291
  - Supercritical Fluid Chromatography (SFC) 33
  - supply chain
    - compliance challenges of 129–131
    - sample management and 108–111
      - – consumer 109
      - – distributor 108
      - – goods and services, classification and strategy 109–111
      - – producer 108
  - supply management principles 107–119
  - application in sample management 107–119, See also under Sample Management (SM)
    - – cycle time 118
    - – effectiveness and quality, measuring and assessing 118–119
    - – instrument QC 119
    - – inventory audits 119
    - – monolithic silos of excellence, avoiding 114–115
    - – position and synchronize inventory 115–117
    - – Program Evaluation and Review Technique (PERT) 119
    - – sample management boundary, expanding 117–118
    - – Total Cost of Ownership (TCO) 118
  - Surface Acoustic Waves (SAWs) technology 207
  - synchronize inventory 115–117
  - system building blocks 169–171
    - accessories 170
    - data management 171
    - liquid handling 169–170
    - plate handling, integration 170
    - storage systems 169
  - systematic variability 85
- t
- Tanimoto coefficient ( $T_c$ ) 289, 291, 296–297
  - tautomerism 250
  - Telepathology 360
  - Theory of Constraints (TOC) 99–100
    - constraint
      - – elevating 99
      - – exploiting 99
      - – identifying 99
      - – return to step 1, 99
      - – subordinate everything else to 99
  - Thermo Fisher Scientific sealer 181
    - ALPS 25 manual heat sealer 181
    - ALPS 3000 compact heat sealer 181
    - XPeel from Nexus BioSystems 181
  - Time of Flight (TOF) 32
  - tip loading 177
  - Tissue-MicroArrays (TMAs) 361–362
  - Total Aspiration and Dispense Monitoring (TADM) software 178
  - Total Cost of Ownership (TCO) 118
  - total productive maintenance system 96–98
  - touchless transfer of dangerous materials 333–334
  - tracking, inventory 267
  - training, staff involvement and 101
  - transfection via sonoporation 336
  - transportation 84, 127–129, See also small molecules transportation, challenges of
    - small molecules transportation, challenges of 127–142
  - Tube Auditor™ 184
  - tube inspection 184
  - tube sorting 181–182
  - tube/vial gripping 177
  - tumor banks 355
  - Tumor Immunology Bank (TIB) 145
  - two-bin kanban 93–94
- u
- ultra High Throughput Screening (uHTS) 3, 9
  - Ultra-high-Performance Liquid Chromatography (UPLC) 29
  - ultrasonic mixing 207–209
  - Ultraviolet-visible spectroscopy/Diode-Array Detector (UV/DAD) 33
- v
- Value for Customs Purpose (VCP) 139
  - value, defining 87–88
  - variability 85
    - random 85
    - systematic 85
  - VENUS instrument control software 178
  - vial-to-plate transfer 5
  - virtual microscopy 360

virtual screening 286–287
virus testing 151–152
visual workplace 100
Volatile Solvent Transfer (VST) 125–126

w wastes 83

– defects 84
– identifying waste 88–89
– inventory 84
– in laboratories 89
– motion 84
– over-processing 84
– over-production 84
– transportation 84
Water For Injection (WFI) quality standards 147 web-based ordering 268

weighing 121–142, See also solid sample weighing and distribution
3456-well format 334
workflow management 269–270
workflow steps 269–270
workload smoothing 90–92
World Federation of Culture Collections
(WFCC) 143
World Intellectual Property Organization
(WIPO) 159

x

XL20 tube handling instrument 182