

Table of Contents

Preface 5

List of Figures and Tables 13

Part 1	Lobbying – its function and legitimisation	15
	A. Lobbying: concepts and definitions	16
	I. From investor relations to governmental relations: lobbying as part of corporate communications	16
	II. Lobbying as the communication of individual interests in the political system	19
	B. The democratic legitimisation for lobbying	22
	I. Politics and interests	24
	II. Lobbying as the aggregation of interests	32
	III. Lobbying: forming a common basis of communication between politics and business	34
	C. The function of lobbying for businesses	37
	D. Part 1 Executive summary	40
Part 2	Lobbying – far more than just ad hoc communication	43
	A. Lobbying as an early warning system: identifying issues and trends	43
	B. Lobbying as a long-term project: a structural approach to decision-making processes	47
	I. General points	47
	II. Information management	49
	III. Strategy consulting	50
	IV. Events	50
	V. Presenting company interests	51
	C. Lobbying as political crisis management: “emergency intervention”	52
	D. Part 2 Executive summary	55

Part 3	The European Union political system and the specifics of lobbying at a European level	57
	A. A brief history of European integration	57
	B. The political system of the EU	63
	I. General points	63
	II. A brief introduction to the major European Union institutions	67
	C. Lobbying in a 27-state Europe	80
	I. Majority decisions by 27 Member States: a strategic risk for companies	82
	II. European coalition building	83
	D. Part 3 Executive summary	85
Part 4	Lobbying at European Union institutions – framework and approaches	87
	A. The basis of legislation in the EU post-Lisbon	87
	I. A new typology of legal acts under the Treaty of Lisbon	88
	II. Legislative procedures in the EU	89
	III. The procedure for delegating implementing powers pursuant to Articles 290 and 291 TFEU, in particular comitology	95
	B. Lobbying at the Council of the European Union (Council of Ministers)	98
	I. General points	98
	II. Regulation of access to the Council	101
	C. Lobbying at the European Commission	102
	I. General points	102
	II. The Commission Directorates-General and Services	105
	III. Regulation of access to Members and officials of the Commission	105
	D. Lobbying at the European Parliament	109
	I. General points	109
	II. Regulation of access to Members of the European Parliament	113
	E. Lobbying at the Committee of the Regions and the Economic and Social Committee	115
	I. General points	115
	II. Regulation of access to the CoR and EESC	116
	F. Part 4 Executive summary	117

Part 5	Methods and tools for targeted lobbying in the EU	121
	A. General points (issues and trends)	121
	B. Structural tools	123
	I. Collective forms: lobbying through associations	124
	II. Non-collective organisations	132
	III. Costs	142
	C. Processual tools	152
	I. Mono-process tools	152
	II. Poly-process tools	159
	D. Implementation in practice: a comprehensive model for structuring effective and efficient lobbying	160
	I. Setting quality standards: benchmarks for effective company lobbying	161
	II. Creating management structures: company coordination of tools	165
	III. Starting point and objective: defining general company lobbying requirements	167
	IV. Basic steps to creating and successfully implementing lobbying projects	169
	V. Conclusion	174
	E. The personal profile of a lobbyist	175
	I. Training	175
	II. Good contacts: an essential prerequisite for successful lobbying	177
	III. Soft skills: a key tool	178
	IV. Integrity and code of practice	179
	F. Part 5 Executive summary	181
Part 6	Case study	187
	A. Starting point: awareness of an ongoing EU legislative procedure	187
	B. Step 1: developing content objectives and assessing political feasibility	188
	C. Step 2: processual situation analysis and strategic planning	189
	D. Step 3: drafting and submitting a white paper to previously determined recipients in the legislature and executive	190
	E. Steps 4 and 5: supplementing the white paper and following the decision-making process in the legislature and executive	191

	I. Lobbying at the European Commission	191
	II. Lobbying at the Council	191
	III. Lobbying at the European Parliament	192
	F. Result: achievement of objectives	193
Part 7	Lobbying in the EU and the USA “K Street” – a model for Brussels?	195
	A. The political system of the USA	196
	I. The political culture	196
	II. The form, structure and mode of operation of the system of government	197
	B. Lobbying in the USA	204
	I. Structure and trends	204
	II. Lobbying control and regulation in the USA	206
	III. Training as a lobbyist?	207
	C. Lobbying methods in the EU and the USA	208
	D. Conclusion: the USA – showing the way for EU lobbying?	210
	E. Part 7 Executive summary	212

Bibliography	215
---------------------	-----

Endnotes	227
-----------------	-----