

Aug. 26th, 1966

Can you synthesize this?
G. Gaston.

A great pleasure to meet you. I hope you will remember fondly Oxford, city of spires - and publishing houses.

Richard

My wife & I were most happy to meet you. We thought again also of our wonderful visit to your country in 1962 which was one of the most exhilarating & instructive experiences we ever had. We wish you a most happy time in England.

S. Herbert Frankel

Welford College
Oxford

May Takahashi, the letters and

Novo chimica provide many more opportunities for a parts.

Theresa Stephen

Aug. 28. '66