

To a Wonderful Visit in Madison, so sorry we can't thank you for a Visit in our home. I am most anxious to visit your lovely country.

Jane Zimmerman ^{Nov 6, 1966}

It is a pleasure to see you in in Madison again. Your travels sound most rewarding. We can only hope you will stay longer next time around! Margaret Gaerney Truth comes in all shapes . Looking forward to seeing you many times when you visit Madison. Harlan Goering.

 I've had a large decrease in energy (free)
 As anyone can plainly see
 But I can tell you, nevertheless I'm pleased to greet you, East or West!

Best wishes,
