

DIMENSIONS OF THE FIRST
UPPER STATE OF ACETYLENE
 (TRANS ANALOGUE OF A SINGLE BOND OF BENZENE)

The CC bond is a three-electron bond. It has the same length as a benzene bond. There are three lone electrons split between the two exterior carbon angles (all lengths and angles spectroscopically measured.)